You will be responsible if:

- Your application is not complete due to your failure to pay the application fee;
- Your application is not complete due to your failure to note your registration number after paying the fee;
- There is any fact or statement in the application which is misrepresented, false and/or incorrect.
- Applicants are not allowed to utilize a cross application approach, which can lead to disqualification. Cross-application is defined as when an applicant is given more than one registration number after submitting multiple applications. Submission of multiple applications means either applying more than one undergraduate course, or applying both undergraduate and graduate course at once.
- Please note that the Office of Admissions do not hold any responsibility for an applicant who failed to check his or her e-mails in a timely manner.
